Cecil County Reciprocal Agreement

Rules and Regulations

1. Under no circumstances shall a keyholder be permitted to loan his/her key. Keyholder may not assign, transfer or pledge the keypad or keypad lease to another person.
 - (a) If it is determined that the keypad has been used by a person other than the keyholder, whether a real estate agent or not, the keyholder will be assessed a $500 liquidated damages charge by CCBOR.
2. Each keyholder shall be solely responsible for the keypad leased to him/her.
3. Keyholder shall not use, or permit others to use, his/her keypad for any personal purposes.
4. No Keyholder shall access a keybox without the consent of the brokerage that placed the keybox on the property.
5. Under no circumstances should the keyholder's PIN be kept with his/her keypad.
6. Keyholders must assure that the property key is not removed from the premises for any reason.
7. CCBOR reserves the right to deactivate the keyholders access to the system for non-compliance with these rules and regulations and if the keypad is lost/stolen/destroyed.
8. These Rules and Regulations are separate from and are not intended to impact upon the Agreement individual keyholders enter into with Supra Products, Inc.
